Report Format

a. Spelling

American, Canadian or British spelling are acceptable, but one style must be used consistently throughout the document.

b. Format

Use 1.5-line spacing for all text material; footnotes and long quotations should be single-spaced. The entire thesis or report must be in the same text font, style, and size (unless there is a reason to highlight features such as computer code). Font size should be no less than 12 pt. Full justification of the text is required.

c. Margins

Consistent margins should be observed throughout the thesis or report. Leave at least a one inch (1.0") margin from the top, bottom, left, and right hand edges of the page. These margins apply to all material, including appendices, diagrams, maps, photographs, charts, tables, and others.

d. Page Numbers

Each page in the thesis or report must be numbered consecutively. Illustrative pages must also be numbered. Roman numerals should be used for the prefatory (Table of Contents, Table of Figures, etc.) pages. The remaining pages of the report, beginning with the introduction should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals. The title page should not be numbered.

e. Length

The number of pages should be between 25 and 35 pages. These pages counts include title page, table of contents, figures, Bibliogrpy. Exceptions to the page count (less or more) should be discussed with the professor.

f. References

All ideas, concepts, text data that are not from the author should be cited. All references cited in the text must be listed in the bibliography (or references section). To cite a single reference, use a number inside square brackets (for example [2]). In a case multi-reference, use all reference numbers in the same square brackets separated by commas (for example [4, 12, 23].
